

Our Visions

Management of PT Toba Pulp Lestari Tbk ("Company") believes that implementing good forest management by paying attention to wood utilization, silvicultural techniques, environmental maintenance and social responsibility, maintaining the value of forests as a source of wood and other forest products, as well as maintaining the function of biodiversity, soil conservation, high conservation value areas and water catchment areas and other ecosystem functions. The Company believes that good forest management for now and in the future is through increasing productivity, carrying capacity to increase the fulfillment of community needs for forest products, maintaining biodiversity, supporting global warming reduction programs as well as benefits for employees, consumers, shareholders, forest surrounding communities, and other stakeholders.

Our Commitments

Kami:

- ★ Committed to complying with applicable laws and regulations and other prerequisites related to Sustainable Forest Management;
- ★ Committed to improving the performance of sustainable forest management through implementing activities that are compatible with low impact logging, efficient use of resources and maintaining areas of high conservation value, conservation areas that represent the ecosystem and continuing to develop the skills, abilities and motivation of workers;
- ★ Committed to continuous management of planting to meet the Company's raw materials and carry out forest management "in the best way" or in accordance with international standards and using new technology in the Perizinan Berusaha Pemanfaatan Hutan (PBPH) Plantation Forest (PF) industry;
- ★ Committed to promoting sustainable forest management to partners and communities where the Company operates;
- ★ Committed to the principle of involvement and interests of the wider community, actively supporting and participating in the economic aspect, and supporting development programs that build public trust.;
- ★ Committed to preserving the culture of indigenous peoples and local communities, including maintaining sites in and around the concession area that have cultural and/or historical value;
- ★ Committed to periodically reviewing the sustainable forest management system to determine the effectiveness of forest management on the parameters of sustainability, biodiversity, soil and water sustainability, the environment and ensuring that business conditions are in accordance with government policies and Company policies.

We will:

- ★ Disseminate information clearly and accurately and prove the Company's sustainable forest management system and the Company's performance from various existing forest sustainability indicators;
- ★ Hold training for employees/ti and the community for appropriate forest sustainability and educate employees/ti to be responsible for forest sustainability;
- ★ Ensure Sustainable Forest Management policies are communicated and understood by all employees, business partners and other interested parties.

Sandeep Bhalla
Managing Director